Winter in Innsbruck, with its many different faces, offers something for everyone! Nestled in the center of the Austrian Alps, it is a winter wonderland for skiers and other visitors. As the site of the 1964 and 1976 Winter Olympic Games, Innsbruck is surrounded by six splendid ski areas and the Stubai Glacier region (guaranteed snow), all of which appeal to skiers with modest to expert skills. Free shuttle service from your hotel to the various resorts is provided with the purchase of a lift pass. The special Innsbruck Superski Pass includes visits to the nearby world-famous resorts of St. Anton and Kitzbühel. For cross-country ski enthusiasts, there are over 120 miles of prepared trails in the Innsbruck area. Numerous other winter activities are also available. Try a thrilling ride on the Olympic bobsled run with a professional driver or perhaps a few turns on the Olympic ice skating rink. You will find that Austrian ski instruction, rental equipment and maintenance of ski runs and nordic ski tracks all meet the highest of standards.

For non-skiers, this charming city bustles with activity. Discover historical Innsbruck by exploring beautiful ancient churches and palaces, wandering down arcaded streets and cobbled lanes, and strolling along the River Inn as it winds through the city. Discover cultural Innsbruck by visiting folk art museums and art galleries, attending classic opera, or experiencing a typical Tyrolean evening of delicious Austrian cuisine and folk music in the cozy atmosphere of an old village inn. Innsbruck is also an ideal starting point for easy day trips to such well known places as Salzburg, Vienna, Zurich, and Venice. Organized sightseeing is available daily from your resort representatives who visit your hotel each evening. As your tour comes to a close, you will wish you had more time to sightsee and enjoy the sights and sounds of Austria.
