The Montafon alpine valley is 39 km long with 11 ski villages at altitudes of between 600 m. and 1,430 m., surrounded by mountains as high as 3,312 m. (Piz Buin). The peaceful villages have a sporting character with extensive sightseeing activities. Our village of St. Gallenkirch is embedded in lovely alpine scenery. Winter transforms the valley into a fabulous ski arena of 65 cable-cars and chair-lifts with around 209 km of well prepared ski marked runs, ski touring on Silvretta's white glaciers, 100 km of cross-country skiing tracks, 192 km of winter footpaths, natural toboggan runs (some floodlit), 11 ski schools, 8 ski kindergartens, a covered artificial ice rink, 2 tennis halls and plenty of après ski make for a memorable and active winter holiday. Your Montafon's ski pass is an all-in-one ticket for all the valley's cable-cars and ski-lifts, the Bludenz - Schruns railway route and the valley's post buses. We are in the Montafon the last week of low season!

For the casual and non skier there are many villages and towns to visit with sightseeing, cultural, sporting and shopping activity to keep everyone happy. Unlike many ski resorts transportation is easy, swift and there will be lots of exploring to do in this fascinating winter wonderland! The valley is senior friendly with special rates!

Our family friendly 4 star, Hotel Adler is more than 190 years old with a strong tradition for service combined with modern comfort. John's friend Helmet Denz, hand picked our hotel. The creativity and variety of the kitchen is well known locally and enjoy the exquisite selection of wines. It boasts Toque awarded cuisine with authentic specialties, vegetarian and international meal choices and serves a wonderful buffet breakfast. The 47 rooms made up of double, single, suites are comfortably appointed, to include bathroom/WC, minibar, phone, radio and color TV, internet access and a balcony or terrace with a view of the mountains. The hotel has an extensive Spa & wellness center in Roman style with Jacuzzi, Steam room, massage, sauna and fitness area for rest and relaxation.
